

We are looking for Junior Tax Consultant

Do you want to become a member of more than 250.000 professionals from across 158 countries? To work with clients from Fortune Global 500 list, have continuous learning opportunities, make real difference and re-imagine the possible?

If your answer is yes, take a look at our offer for Junior Tax Consultant position, join PwC and be a game changer!

The role:

- Assisting individuals and multinational employers with tax consulting and compliance matters related to global employee mobility
- Solving complex individual taxation issues, tax residence matters, advising on cost-effective international employment and remuneration structures
- Communicating and finding the best practices as well as solutions with the Tax Authorities, participating in global projects related to individual taxation

You are our perfect candidate if you:

- Eager to embrace new challenges and become an individual taxation expert
- Interested to learn more about various tax systems, international taxation principles, related risks and ways to improve tax effectiveness
- Brave enough to consult executive level company leaders – our key clients
- The one who has some experience in tax consulting or compliance
- A team-player with hardworking approach, ability to multitask and easily adapt to fast changing environment
- 3rd or later year student/recent graduate in Economics, Business, Management and/or related fields
- Fluent in English and Lithuanian, can demonstrate good business writing and MS Office skills

What's in it for you:

- Being part of the global team of recognised experts, access to the global expertise and methodologies – both internal and external
- Support for your personal and professional development
- Dynamic, international and friendly work environment

Apply now!
zydrune.mincyte@pwc.com

