If your answer is yes, take a look at our offer for Management Consultant position, join PwC and be a game changer!

The role:

We're looking for an energetic, passionate colleague who enjoys sweating the details to deliver bold work for our clients in the private and public sector across the whole country. Reporting to the Management Consulting team leader, you'll be a key part of the Vilnius-based experienced Advisory team working hard to put the customer at the centre of everything that you do (and you'll challenge our clients and their teams to do the same), and bringing propositions, services, and 'the art of the possible' to life.

- You will be involved in consulting projects aimed at solving important client issues, such as improvement of clients' performance and processes, by performing data analysis, compliance and other evaluations, conducting researches, preparing various studies and bringing valuable insights and recommendations for the client
- You will be included in full cycle of management consulting projects to start with proposal preparation and finish with end result delivery for the client

You are our perfect candidate if you:

- Have a strong interest in management consulting and business processes – we would also value your previous experience
- Have a strong desire to co-create (with clients and internal teams), and experience working in this way
- Are a university graduate in Economics, Management, Finance or related fields
- Confident verbal and visual communicator, fluent in English and Lithuanian languages
- Have excellent business writing and MS Office skills
- Are a natural problem solver, and an all-around cool person

What's in it for you:

- Being part of the global team of recognised experts, access to the global expertise and methodologies – both internal and external
- Support for your personal and professional development
- Dynamic, international and friendly work environment
