

Accounts Reconciliation Investigator – Vilnius, Lithuania

Do you have an eye for detail and the ability to manage multiple tasks with ease? Are you ready to unleash your potential in a global business that is committed to moving money for better? Join Western Union as an Accounts Reconciliation Investigation.

Motivated by our values: purpose driven, globally minded, and trustworthy & respectful

We're a FinTech that's using insight from customers and colleagues worldwide to improve financial services for families, small businesses, multinational corporations, and non-profit organizations. We're a team of over 10,000 people spanning 200 countries and territories. We believe when money moves, better things happen.

Better requires process discipline and simplification

We'll be looking to you to investigate complex reconciling items to ensure timely reconciliation resolution, which includes the escalation of items to the appropriate internal or external groups. It will be up to you to identify trends of reconciliation challenges and work with your supervisor to create and implement resolutions for trends. You'll make a difference by providing continuous support to Accounts Reconciliation Clerks to enhance their investigation skills.

Here are some skills, attributes, and qualifications you will have:

- English required, written and verbal;
- 1-2 years of experience in Accounting
- Advanced knowledge of Excel;
- Attention to detail, strong communication skills, and customer service skills;
- Ability to manage and prioritize multiple projects/tasks independently;
- Education background in Accounting/Finance

IMPORTANT NOTE: Following the Western Union Business Solutions divestiture announcement on August 4, 2021, recruitment efforts will continue for this position on behalf of Western Union. However, as part of the divestiture agreement, this position will transition to the purchasing company should the transaction conclude. The hiring team will be able to answer any questions you may have.

Join us, and let's move money for better

Western Union is transforming its business and shaping the financial services sector by driving quality, convenience, and customer service to new levels of excellence. It's an exciting time for our organization, as the largest cross-border money transfer operator, trusted by millions of consumers around the world. If you're ready to unleash your potential to help drive change through bottom-up innovation, apply now.

We're a company on the move, and we want our people to grow and develop. You'll have plenty of opportunities to learn new skills and build a career, as well as a great salary and benefits package.

We are passionate about our diversity. Our commitment is to provide an inclusive culture that celebrates the unique backgrounds and perspectives of our global teams, while reflecting the communities we serve. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, political affiliation, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, marital status, or veteran (U.S.) status. The company will provide accommodation to applicants, including those with disabilities, during the recruitment process, in accordance with applicable laws.

The annual gross base salary range is 14,100 – 24,171 EUR. This range represents the anticipated low and high end of the salary for this position. Actual salaries will vary and are based on factors such as a candidate's qualifications, skills, and competencies. Salary is one component of the Western Union total compensation package, which includes short-term incentives, multiple health insurance options, accident and life insurance, and access to best-in-class development platforms, to name a few! The Recruiter will share other benefits specific to your location and role during the interview process.